

UC Irvine Department of Anthropology

Law and Policy Certificate Program Application

Please complete the form below, and submit to department office in SBSG 3205.

*Copy of unofficial transcripts is required for EACH application*

Only one certificate request is permitted per application.

Applicant Information

(Please print or type)

Name (Last, First):  Student ID Number:

Mailing Address:

City:  State:  Zip Code:

Cell/Home Phone:

E-mail Address:

Completed Requirements for Anthropology Certificate: Law and Policy

Completed certificate courses with a grade of "C" or better (Each course may not be used toward more than ONE Anthropology Certificate):

1.
2.
3.
4.

NOTE: If an above course is not one of the exact courses listed below (taken with another department, at another university, is a transfer course, etc.), please email the Undergraduate Program Director for course approval. Attach the email to this application.

Law and Policy Courses

**Found on the Anthropology Website**

Anthro 121D (Cross-Cultural Studies in Gender)
Anthro 121G (Political Anthropology)
Anthro 121J (Urban Anthropology)
Anthro 125X (Transnational Migration)
Anthro 127 (Controversies, Courts, Cultures: The Anthropology of Law)
Anthro 127A (Law and Modernity)
Anthro 127B (Global Migrations, Anthropology, and the Law)
Anthro 129 (by petition to the Undergraduate Director)
Anthro 136A (Nationalism and Ethnicity in the Contemporary World)

Anthro 136D (Conflict Resolution in Cross-Cultural Perspective)
Anthro 138 (Prisons and Public Ed)
Anthro 139 (by petition to the Undergraduate Director)
Anthro 161T Field Research: Asian Immigrants and Refugees in Orange County
Anthro 162B (Indian North American)
Anthro 169 (by petition to the Undergraduate Director)
GSS - Gen&Sex 60B (Gender and Law)
CLS - Criminology, Law and Society courses; (by petition to the Undergraduate Director)